NUMISMATISTS SET UP EXHIBIT

Marietta-Smyrna Coin Club chose Larry Jackson, right, the junior member of its board of governors, to set up an exhibit at a bank during National Coin Week, sponsored by the American Numismatic Association. Jackson and Frank Brown, left, another member of the coin club, present the exhibit and coin guide books to James A. McFarlane, center, vice president of the First National Bank of Cobb County, Cumberland Branch. A total of 120 dozen guide books were distributed to persons who viewed the exhibit.

thinking about clocks.

Nielsen already had a small shop in his basement, but he had a friend that had even more equipment that he could use.

Following the trend of most clockmakers, Nielsen made his first grandfather clock for his family. The results pleased him and Nielsen knew he had found a real interest.

It takes time to work out designs, scales, order materials, components and apply the finish—but Nielsen had the time and moved into his new trade with anticipation.

After a few more successes, Nielsen decided he could handle four clocks at one time as easily as one. So he set up his own production line.

During the short time he

PUSHING OFF A TUB

Excited Southern Tech students geared up for the big bathtub race, scheduled to begin Saturday at 2 p.m. on the campus, after time trials last week. Designed primarily to work the mechanical "bugs" out of this year's competing tubs, the time trials also allowed drivers to get the feel of their machines and the track. This will be the eighth year the Marietta division of Georgia Tech has run the competition.

Jaycee Officers To Be Installed

Floyd Morris will be installed as president of the Powder Springs Jaycees when the club holds its annual installation dinner and awards program June 1 at the Ramada Inn on Delk Road.

Other officers to be installed are: David Earnhart, vice president; Ronnie Anderson, external vice president; Bob Duckworth, secretary; Tom Farmer, treasurer; and Gene Dillard, state director. In addition, Cam Hudder, Steve Wilkita and Randy Sta-dent of both the Marietta Jaycees and the Region 20 Jaycees, will perform the installation ceremonies.

Pat Tyson, president of the Georgia Jaycettes, will install new Jaycette officers at the banquet.

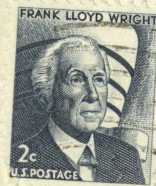

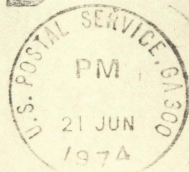

Members of the Powder Springs club who wish to make reservations should do so by calling Bill Leachman at Powder Springs City Hall, 943-5540, before May 29.
